The City, in its sole discretion, may add or withdraw any items before the auction. Where an item is removed, those in attendance will be notified of the change at the commencement of the auction. Items are offered on an “as is, where is, and with all faults” basis. The items are offered with no guarantee, express or implied, including without limitation, the implied warranty of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. It is the bidder's responsibility to identify, by careful personal examination of the items, the nature and extent of any and all defects. The City of Hackensack reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids.
